

CURRICULUM VITAE

SHORT BIO

Started the academic journey in Architecture and Urbanism at the University of São Paulo in 2007, transitioning to Design in 2010 and graduating in 2013 as a Graphic and Product Designer.

Began a professional career as a graphic designer at studios Ps.2 Design and CLDT, as well as at Lumini and the publisher Cosac Naify, gaining over 4 years of experience.

In 2015, co-founded an independent design studio alongside partner Alexandre Lindenberg, collaborating with both large and small companies, institutions, and cultural centers across print and digital media.

Recognitions include being selected in 2018 as one of the Ascenders by the Type Directors Club in New York—a portfolio-based award celebrating designers under 35 for achievements in typography, type design, and lettering. Additional accolades include the Free Access Award (2012), the Brazilian Design Museum Award (2013), and the Latin American Award for Editorial Design (2014).

Contributions to the design community include speaking at the Guadalajara International Book Fair (2014) and serving as a jury member for the II Latin American Award for Editorial Design in Buenos Aires (2016).

Currently, works as a Senior Art Director at Strichpunkt Design, with focus on branding for major IT, local, and global brands such as AMG, Deutsche Bahn, Volocopter, Endava and Diva-e. Responsibilities include leading the design process and managing a team, overseeing projects from concept to delivery to ensure creative excellence and strategic alignment.
